I agree to the following when I purchase dietary supplement products on thorne.com:

I have read the warnings for each product I am purchasing.

I will consult with my health-care practitioner (1) about other medications or dietary supplements I am using; (2) if I am pregnant or breastfeeding or might become pregnant; (3) to find out if a contraindication or pre-existing medical condition applies to my situation; and (4) to make sure each product is appropriate for my situation.

I understand it is against Thorne policy to accept returns from consumers.
